

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The Journal Southeastern Europe is a refereed journal. It focuses on developments in individual countries, cross-country comparative analyses, the relations between SEE and the neighboring countries, as well as with EU.

Manuscripts should be submitted electronically to Nicola Nobili (nicola.nobili@poloforli.unibo.it +39 (0)543 21995). Microsoft Word is the preferred format.

Books for review should be addressed to (nicola.nobili@poloforli.unibo.it +39 (0)543 21995).

Articles must be of 20-25 pages (36,000-45,000 characters).

Bibliography should be at the end of the article following the model:

Book

Todorova M. (1997) Imagining the Balkans. New York, etc.: Oxford University Press.

Article

Iliescu A. (2003) Political Manichaeism in contemporary public debate: the Romanian case.- Southeastern Europe, vol. 30, 1-12.

Chapter in a book

Salomoni F. (2005) Balkan migrations to modern Turkey.- In: Chiodi L. (ed) The borders of the polity. Migration and security across the EU and the Balkans. Ravenna: Longo, 143 – 168.

References follow the model:
(Todorova 1997: 345)

Notes are used as footnotes.

Spelling

If possible, stick to the American spelling.

For any other general information or stylistic convention, please refer to The Chicago Manual of Style (University of Chicago Press, various editions).