

Chair in Contemporary Turkish Studies

Salary will be determined by the Director

Applications are invited for the newly endowed post of Chair in Contemporary Turkish Studies in the European Institute. The appointment will be from 1 April 2007 or later by agreement. The Chair has been established on a permanent basis as a result of the generosity of various donors.

We seek an outstanding candidate to provide academic leadership in research, teaching and related public activities. Preference may be given to candidates in political economy, economics, or public policy – but candidates in other social science disciplines are encouraged to apply.

The appointee will be expected to have a good knowledge of the Turkish language and society. For further information on the Institute, go to: <http://www.lse.ac.uk/collections/europeaninstitute/>

Those interested are encouraged to obtain the further particulars and details of how to apply from the Human Resources Division, LSE, Houghton Street, London WC2A 2AE (telephone 020 7955 6068 or e-mail hr.recruit.prof@lse.ac.uk). Applications must be submitted via the Human Resources Division.

Informal enquiries can be made to Professor Kevin Featherstone, Director of the European Institute, at: k.featherstone@lse.ac.uk

Please quote job reference number: SA/05/04.

Closing date for applications: 6 October 2006.
